

Learn from Sigma Tau Delta's most successful chapters!

"Outstanding" chapter members and faculty sponsors will lead workshop sessions that help your chapter come together and stay active. All students and faculty sponsors interested in chapter development and leadership are welcome to participate!

Fundraising—Learn about the essential elements of fundraising and get "helpful hints" for implementing a successful fundraiser.

Service—Meet the "experts" who have organized successful (and fun!) service-oriented activities and brainstorm about activities that will work for your chapter (no matter how small or how big!).

Small Chapter Development—"Great things come in small packages," so come learn from $\Sigma\tau\Delta$'s most successful small chapters about how to focus on the unique needs and concerns of running a small chapter to its fullest potential.

Publishing a Literary Journal—Want to start a literary journal or magazine at your school? Would you like to improve an existing publication? If so, join the publishing "experts" of $\Sigma\tau\Delta$ for a session that will offer great ideas, techniques, and advice for publishing a journal at your school.

Chapter Administration—Get the "inside scoop" on how to develop and maintain a successful chapter. Learn strategies on conducting productive meetings, electing good officers, and fostering chapter enthusiasm and participation.

Chapter Sponsor Workshop

9:00 a.m. – 10:45 a.m.

March 29, 2007

2007 International Convention — Pittsburgh, PA

Discuss the issues that sponsors face in fostering chapter involvement, recruiting new members, and developing chapter leaders. This workshop for chapter sponsors is led by Sandra Mayfield and Marybeth DeMeo who are sponsors of Outstanding Award winning chapters. Professor Mayfield, a former Southwestern Regent, has been sponsor for the Chi Gamma chapter at the University of Central Oklahoma since 1999. Professor DeMeo, a former Eastern Regent and a former $\Sigma\tau\Delta$ President, has been the Kappa Pi chapter sponsor at Alvernia College (Pennsylvania) since 1981.

There is no charge to participate; however, registration is required. Please check the appropriate box on the Registration Form (www.english.org/pittsburgh/07reg_form.pdf).
